

International Staff Training Week at European University Viadrina

September 24th to 26th 2025

Overcoming Challenges in International Higher Education: Join us at our Staff Training Week!

In the midst of overload, can we still successfully accomplish our work? The challenges of our time in international higher education are numerous, including generational conflicts, digitalization, and communication strategies.

We are delighted to invite you to our upcoming Staff Training Week at European University Viadrina in Frankfurt (Oder), Germany, from 24th to 26th of September 2025!

We would like to network with each other and focus on current topics which we are all facing:

- o Generational conflicts
- o Digitalization
- o Communication strategies

We'd love for you to join us during September!
